CRUCIFIXION OF BISHOP IMMINENT

Efforts Being Made to Collect Sum to Ransom Prelate.

WANTS 50,000 PESOS.

O'Shaughnessy Indignant at Boldness of Rebel Leader—Battle Progresses at Tampico.

Mexico City, April 9.—Strenuous efforts are being made by the Catholicts of Guerro today to raise 50,000 pesos before tomorrow, that the Bishop of Chilapa may be saved from crucifixion.

The bishop is still in the hands of the rebel bandit Zapata,who declared that unless the ransom is paid he will celebrate Good Friday by crucifying the prelate.

It is now too late to get the money to Zapata from Mexico. The rebel bandit is far from the capital in his mountain fastness, and whether the bishop is finally saved cannot be learned for several days.

Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge d'affaires, who is a Catholic, is incensed at the threats made by Zapata He declared today it was the most uncivilized of all the terrifying acts of the entire revolution.

The capital today was still ignorant of the capture of Torreon and betting on the outcome of the battle, supposed to be still in progress, was brisk.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, April 9.—Reports of a sweeping Federal victory at Tampico, were received by General Maas, commanding the federal garrison here today, but wireless messages received from Rear Admiral Mayo, declared the battle is still in progress.

During the night Mayo conferred with Rear Admiral Cradock,commanding the British vessels, as to the advisability of endeavoring to take refugees aboard the battleships, but it was decided such action was unnecessary under present conditions.

In his messages Mayo suggested that the Ward liner Morro Castle be sent to Tampico to take off the refugees. The Mexican gunboats of Tampico have been odered not to fire upon the city.

CAVALERI'S ADVICE.

Says Women Should Wait Until They Are Forty-Four to Wed.

New York, April 9.—Lina Cavaleri, who belongs in the world's gallery of beautiful women, left some inteesting advice on the subject of love and marriage when she departed these shores yesterday, accompanied by Lucien Muratare, her husband.

"Married love is not so good," said the singer. "It is better to stay single, or at least, not marry until one is forty-four years old."

Then she said she was going to Paris, and dropped these epigrammatic pearls:

"It is a mistake to wed solely for love.

"Wed for love, if you can, but never fail to have an eye to conscience.

"Sweet words will not pay the chauffeur.

"One child is enough for any couple.

"More than one child, if a couple takes my advice, and wed at forty-four, would seal their death warrant as far as comfort and pleasure are concerned."

GUNMEN'S HOPE IS VANISHING

Governor Glynn Refuses Plea For Reprieve and Will Not Change.

BID LAST FAREWELL.

Confession Expected as Death Day Approaches—Friends of Condemned Say They Will Die Bravely.

New York, April 9.—With but four days of life remaining to them, the gunmen in their cells at Sing Sing prison have not changed their demeanor. They are showing a courage that is unmarked by worry.

And yet, in spit of their attitude, the impession grew strong last night—for the first time since their conviction—that before they go to their death they will tell a story different from any they have told so far.

There is nothing tangible upon which to base this belief. Those close to the condemned men still protest their innocence and insist that the prisoners can add nothing to what they have aleady told.

On the other hand, it is felt that the approach of their last days and the development of a religious spirit may wring from the four, if not a confession, at least a fuller than they have so far given.

In the speculation that followed the report of a possible statement from the gun men, the question was asked what effect a confession from them would have upon the matter of a repieve. If the four were able to show they had evidence materially affecting the Becker case, it is not doubted Governor Glynn would be urged by District Attorney Whitman to stay their executions.

The four have decided to make a statement before they are led to the electric chair, but the nature of this only they know. Their conduct yesterday was no change from that which has marked them since they were first placed in the death house sixteen months ago. They have been among the exemplary prisoners of Sing Sing prison, according to Warden Clancy, and they have assured him they will continue so until the end.

The families of Lefty Louie, Gyp the Blood, Dago Frank, and Whitey Lewis ae trying to accept the execution as inevitable, but they still cling to the possibility that the governor may change his mind between now and Monday morning and grant the four a reprieve.

CALLS FOR INVESTIGATION.

"Milking" of Southern Railway Alleged by Coal Operator.

"Milking" of the Southern Railway in a way strikingly similar to that of the New Haven, to the amount of $50,000,000 is one of the charges made in a letter read in the Senate this afternoon by Senator Tillman.

Another charge is that the Southern, the Norfolk and Western, and other Southern roads, are ebing used to "destroy private interests; specifically, some of the independent coal properties in the territory.'

A giant railroad conspiracy to favor Northern roads and ports for coal traffi, as against Southern roads and ports, also is charged.

B. L. Dulaney, a coal operator of Bristol, Tenn., is the writer, his letter following a resolution introduced by Senator Tillman two weeks ago calling for an investigation by the Senate of the freight rates on coal from the mines to the seaboard.

Dulaney charges that by means of exorbitant rates from the mines to Southern ports, and reasonable rates in the North, a group of financiers, mostly in New York, has been systematically looting the Southern Railway and others in that field to the advantage of the Northern roads, which the same group of financiers also controls.

"I believe that it is a conservative estimate," writes Dulaney, "to say that the mines from Virginia to Alabama reached directly by the Sothern Railway could furnish coal now at the rate of 10,000,000 tons per annum for tidewater business, and this tonnage could be increased at an enormous annual rate if the operators were only certain of their position.

"This would increase the gross revenues of the Southern Railway by $14,000,000, assuming that the tidewater rate of $1.40 would be put in, and when you add to the freight item the value of the coal itself at a low estimate the amount would be $25,000,000 annually that would remain in the territory served by the Southern Railway.

"I believe a thorough investigation will show that the Southern Railway has been the dumping ground for the sale of other railroads at unreasonable profits by the friends of the business associates of some of the directors. I have personal knowledge of the sale of the Virginia and South Western Railway by Henry K. McHarg at practically six times what it cost him or his company when the Southern Railway could just as well have bought it directly and saved the five millions. I believe that an investigation will show that such transactions, amounting to probably $50,000,000 or more, have taken place since the control by the present financiers."

COLORED MAN INJURED.

Caught by Car on Elevated Railway at Fertilizer Plant.

About four o'clock yesterday afternoon considerable excitement was caused by the ambulance of the Alexandria Hospital rushing toward the northeastern section of the city, and it was at first supposed somebody had been hurt at the depot of the Old Dominion Railway on north Fairfax street. It was later learned that William Lewis, colored, employed by the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company had been injured.

Lewis had been caught on the elevated railway across Union street while a car used in unloading vessels was passing and had been knocked down. Upon reaching the hospital an examination was made and it was seen that he had not been hurt seriously, although Lewis was somewhat bruised.

A short time ago Henry Davis, while, an employee, at the plant, received fatal injuries in a similar accident.

FINED AND SENT TO JAIL FOR 6 MONTHS

Race Track Gamblers Are Brought Before Magistrate and Sentenced.

APPEALS ARE NOTED.

Notwithstanding Convictions, Racing Continues and Book-Makers Still Ply Their Trade.

Norfolk, Va., April 9.—After a trial lasting well into the night, Magistrate S. Burwell Bragg, of Norfolk county, last night sentenced the thirteen men arrested Tuesday at the Jamestown track on charges of making books on the races, to six months in jail. He also imposed a fine of $100 in each case

An appeal was noted in each case, and the accused were held in $1,500 bonds for trial by a jury. The defendents offered no evidence, their lawyers contending that they had violated no laws.

The convicted men are Maurice Cole, L. H. Snell, S. A. Stern, James A. Jackson, John T. Tully, H. Marks, Walter Moran, B. L. Johnson, L. Unge, Matthew Franke, Melville Strauss, Max Sheppard, and Robert Thompson.

No evidence was taken except in the case of H. Marks and Matthew Franke.

The hearing was held before Magistrate Bragg, recently appointed for the Tanners Creek district. Attorney-General John Garland Pollard, assisted Prosecuting Attorney A. D. Carrey, who was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of former prosecuting Attorney R. C. Marshall. There was no hesitancy on the part of t magistrate in issuing the sentence; and he stated from the bench that he was convinced the men were guilty.

A vast throng filled the court room when the case was called at 5 o'clock.

While there is a very appreciable sentiment against racing here, many are of the opinion that the state officials went too far in employing W G Baldwin and his detectives to make a raid. Some mistake must have been made in arresting the bookmakers, for of the fifteen men now out under bail only three are believed to be proprietors of stalls, the rest being merely employes.

While there is plenty of excitement here, there is no need for troops or for particular vigilance on the p of the State authorities. The state has secured a conviction, but the races were run yesterday with the biggest crowd of the meet on hand; t "bookies" were at work as usual, and it is boldly asserted, even in the face of the convictions that the meet will continue until April 15 without any change or interruption.

The defense af the wager-takers before Magistrate Bragg was that they were violating no statute in the Virginia code, neither were they making book, as it is described in any of these statutes. Attorney-General Pollard fought with his usual vigor, and while many were skeptical as to his ability to present sufficient evidence to cause conviction, all felt, even before the taking of evidence began, that the life of open bookmaking in Virginia was destined to bs woefully short.

GOVERNMENT VEHICLES.

Senator Martin Takes Inventory of Means of Transportation of Departments and District of Columbia.

Comprehensives figures have been obtained by Senator Martin, chairman of the Senate Committee on Appropriations, from all the government departments and bureaus, on the number of motor vehicles and other vehicles which they have for passenger purposes. The data covers both the government departments and bureaus and the District government. It also applies to the entire country.

Senator Martin called on the heads of departments and bureaus for the information as the result of the recent debate in the Senate in connection with the District bill, on the use of automobiles or other vehicles by officials.

The government and the District of Columbia own and operate for passenger purposes 341 autos and motorcycles and 2,386 horse-drawn vehicles.

The statement says the total cost of the motor passenger vehicles is $404,637.75, and of the horse-drawn passenger vehicles, $452,362.94.

Of all the Cabinet officers, according to the statement, the only one who has an auto for his own purposes is the Secretary of Labor. The other Cabinet officers have horse-drawn passenger vehicles provided for them, ostensibly on official business. Each has from two to four such vehicles.

Secretary Bryan has three carriages, including a brougham, a victoria and a surrey. Secretary McAdoo has four and the Secretary of War four.

The Interstate Commerce Commission and the Civil Service Commission have the distinction of not possessing any passenger vehicles of any kind.

The figures of Senator Martin are expected to cause much discussion in the consideration of appropriations for the various departments on the floor of the Senate.

Seventy Per Cent. of Females Cast Votes for Prohibition.

LEAN TO DEMOCRATS.

Probe To Follow in Chicago, Buying of Votes Against Women Being Charged—Subway Scheme Killed.

Chicago, April 9.—Charges that votes were bought freely to re-elect Aldeman John G. Coughlin in the first ward, will be made the subject for an investigation for which a $10,000 fund has been started. Adherents of Miss Marion H. Drake, defeated gressive candidate, began collecting the fund after they had heard numerous reports that money was used to round up "floaters" in the ward for Coughlin.

Women voting for the first time in Illinois township elections demonstrated their power Tuesday by closing the doors of more than 1100 out of 2652 saloons, adding 16 counties to the 30 already "dry," and barring the sale of intoxicants in approximately 200 of the 300 townships in which local option was an issue.

The victory included 11 of the large cities of the State, which until the votes were counted were "wet" territory. They were Bloomington, Galesburg, Elgin, Decatur, Canton, Freeport, Belvidere, Monmonth, Kewanee, Lockport, and East Galena, Rockford, Mattoon and Galva were kept in the "dry" 'column by women's votes.

Complete returns fom county townships and from more remote sections of the State are not available, but it is shown that approximately 70 per cent of the women voters favored the anti-saloon ticket.

Actual figures compiled from 75 townships, including both urban and rural territory, gave these totals:

"Dry" vote: Men, 34,743; women, 46,997; total, 81,740.

"Wet" vote: Men, 49,409; women, 22,751; total, 72,160.

Political party affiliations showed that about 55,000 of the women voting were Democrats, 51,000 Republicans, 20,000 Progressives and 13,000 independents. Proviso, a part of Cook county, out of Chicago, voted to retain saloons. No option elections were held in Chicago

Joliet remains wet by a majority of 25000 votes.Nearly 10,000 women voted there, being about equally divided as to saloons.

Although about 73 per cent of Chicago registered took advantage of the newly-gained franchise, none of the nine women candidates for the City Council were successful, receiving only a scattered vote. Some men received more votes from women than did their female competitors.

The vote in Chicago totaled nearly 500,000. Out of a total of 217,614 women who had qualified, 158,686 voted. Only 72 per cent of men went to the polls, 382,987 casting votes.

WANTS A DIVORCE.

Lafe Pence Defendant in Suit Instituted by His Wife.

New York, April 9.—Stories of luxuriously furnished apartments on Riverside Drive, costly gifts, southern and ocean trips, and jaunts into the country, all of these shared by Lafayette M. Pence, former representative from Colorado, and Lilian N. Duke, divorced wife of the tobacco king, earned for Mrs. Katherine Soper Pence an interlocutory decree of divorce, handed down by Judge Scudder yesterday. It was by no means Mrs. Duke's first appearance in the divorce court. She was divorced in 1893 by Wm. E. McCredey, a Harlem coffee broker,and in 1906 by Jas. B. Duke, head of the tobacco trust. She lived with Duke less than a year and he is reported to have given her $500,000 when they separated.

Mrs. Pence will begin suit for $150,000 against Mrs. Duke, charging alienation of Pence's affections, as soon as her decree is made final.

How to be Happy

Keep your disposition happy and always have a chum,
And choose companions from those friends who are never feeling glum.
Love to work and labor, earn more than it takes to live;
Have something to cheer up others, have something to spend an give.
Of friends there will be many to enjoy what you can earn,
And they will never leave you while you do the friendly turn.
The above is good philosophy and in my effort to live up to it I am reaching out for more business.

ANOTHER FRIGID BLAST

Cold Northwest Wind Follows Warm Wave of Past Few Days—Colder Tonight

The old saying that April borrows ten days from March is annually brought to mind, and the sudden change in meteorological conditions yesterday showed that winter was loth to relax its grip. Much rain fell at times during the day, and the rumbling of thunder could occasionally be heard south of this city. During the afternoon the wind began to shift from the South towards the west and northwest, and as the day drew near its close the temperature was falling rapidly. The wind increased in force and during the night the heavens became clear. The weather today has been fine and crisp.

An ice-chilled wave direct from the frozen fields of Alaska was bearing down upon the Southern and Eastern States last night, bringing what promises to be a record-breaking fall in temperatures. Weather Bureau experts are inclined to think furs and overcoats would be exceedingly popular in Easter parades Sunday.

From the lower Mississippi Valley States East to the Atlantic and as far North as the Ohio Valley the temperature records reported last night ranged from 20 to 50 degrees. At Pensacola, Fla., the thermometer registered 50 degrees and was expected to drop to the 40 degree point by this morning. By tonight, the reports said, the northern portion of Florida would be in the grip of heavy frosts.

The course of the cold wave is due north from the Southern Atlantic States.

NAVY YARD MEN LOSE JOBS.

Cut in Force Throws Out 125, Union Providing Work.

One hundred and twenty employes of Washington Navy Yard were forced out of employment yesterday by Capt. Hillary Jones, the commandant. It was the long-expected cut in the force at the local yard.

Through the efforts of the International Order of Machinists, nearly all of the 100 machinists among the men discharged will be given jobs elsewhere. The discharge, it is said, will place the force at the navy yard on a normal basis. Captain Jones expressed the hope that a further cut would not be necessary.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

DEFENDS HUSBAND.

Mrs. Neisz Blames Tragedy on The "Other Woman."

Richmond, Va., April 9.—Between sobs and tears Tuesday in her home at 1128 West Marshall street, Mrs. Phillip L. Neisz, wife of the police sergeant who took his life by sending a pistol ball crashing through his skull late Monday night a moment after killing of Mrs.Roberta Lester, with a bullet from the same revolver in her home at 714 West Broad street,blamed Mrs. Lester, who was an attractive young woman of pretty refined features, for the tragedy.

"My husband was a good man," said Mrs. Neisz, wiping her eyes, "and but for that woman this awful thing would never have happened. She kept on following him and wouldn't leave him alone. I warned her to mind her own business but it did no good. She had a husband of her own. It was last June that I first discovered that she and Sergeant Neisz knew each other. The sergeant was laid up with a scalded leg. One day he received a bouquet of flowers with a note attached to them. And I read the note and saw that it came from Mrs. Lester. I did not know who she was, but I told the Sergeant that he ought not to accept the flowers. The note said that an answer was expected by the messenger boy, but she never got any, as the boy took back the flowers and nothing else. Later, Mrs. Lester came up in the neighborhood of our home. She did not, however come in.

Sergeant Neisz was high tempered and at times I was very much afraid of him. But he had many good traits to offset this. He was a good provider and generous to a fault. There was nothing that his children could not have if they expressed the wish.

"On Monday the sergeant happened to be in one of his ugly moods, and for a while I feared for my own life. He was in an awful temper over something, and I knew that other woman had something to do with it. No, he did not threaten to kill me yesterday as reported. I was merely afraid that he would do so. But I was not surprised when I learned of the terrible tragedy. I somehow or other thought when he left home that he might not come back alive."

EX-MINISTER HEIR TO $10,000.

Once Pastor at Laurel, Md., Now Doorman at Theatre.

Richmond, Va., April 9.—J. Richard Tillery, formerly pastor of the Laurel, (Md.) Methodist Church who is now doorman at the Colonial Theatre, a vaudeville house here, has fallen heir to $10,000, according to a telegram he received from Luther Tillery, his first cousin, who is cashier of a bank in Rocky Mount, N. C.

The message came from Blytheville, Ark., to which place the Rocky Mount banker was summoned several days ago by news of the death of his uncle, James H. Musgrave, a wealthy Arkansas planter, who was murdered.

DEATH OF F. W. BAKER.

Business Manager of The Southern Churchman Victim of Paralysis.

Richmond, Va., April 9.—Frederick W. Baker, business manager of the Southern Churchman, died yesterday afternoon at 4.15 o'clock at his residence, 912 West Grace street, after a brief illness. Mr. Baker was 75 yeas old. He was stricken with total paralysis on Sunday morning while preparing to attend church.

The funeral will be conducted from Holy Trinity Episcopal Church tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Mr. Baker had been connected with the Southern Churchman here for 18 years. He came to Richmond in 1901 from Belair, Md., where he had been conducting a weekly newspaper, to take charge of the business end of the religious paper. The enterprise prospered under his management, and the loss will be keenly felt by his associates.

He was a singularly active man for his years, and seldom had to complain of ill health. The stroke of paralysis came entirely without warning, Mr. Baker apparently being in the best of health just previous to the attack. His wife heard him fall to the floor in an adjoining room, and on rushing to his side found him unable to utter a word or move a limb. The physicians held out no hope for his recovery.

Mr. Baker was a man of high culture and Christian character.

FOUR BURNED TO DEATH.

Almost Every Member of Colored Family Exterminated.

Suffolk, Va., April 9.—A horrible accident of the burning of a while family of colored people near South Quay, Nansemond county, is reported here.

Last Friday night, about 11 o'clock, the home of Henry Hanshaw, a reputable colored farmer, living near South Quay, caught fire, and his wife, 15-year-old son, and 2-year-old infant, and 6-year-old girl, were all burned to a crisp, the charred bodies appearing to show that all, except the 15-year-old boy, died in their beds, probably being suffocated.

Hanshaw and his two oldest girls had gone to a choir practice at a church nearby and returned to find their home and family in ashes, and only one child alive to tell the story, a small crippled boy, who slept on the lower floor, and who crawled out and tried to awaken the others, but failed. He did get the older boy up who came down stairs, but was caught under the falling beams and burned to death against the front door.

OIL IN SCOTT COUNTY.

Southern Railway Company Bores Well at Yuma, Va.

Gate City, Va., April 9.—Mr. Libby, representing the Southern Railway Company, has been engaged for several months in borin gfor oil at Yuma, seven miles southwest of Cate City After going down about 1,100 feet he struck it rich, it seems. He says that his work will require the services of 500 men and that the development of the work will be pushed with vigor.

The rich black fluid he has struck seems to be in abundance. For years it has been believed there was oil there and just after the war a well was started, but the company failed before they had gone down two hundred feet.

The section in which the oil was discovered is pierced by the Holston River Railroad which is a coal shopping branch of the Southern. The Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railroad also passes through it. The facilities for shipping the oil are therefore of the best.

It is understood that a number of other wells will be bored by the same company in the vicinity. The price of real estate has sprung to a high figure.

MAYOR R. T. McGUIRE DEAD.

Executive of Winchester, Expires in Richmond Hospital.

Winchester, Va., April 9.—Randolph Tucker McGuire, Mayor of Winchester, died Tuesday night in St. Luke's Hospital, Richmond, which was founded by his uncle, the late Dr. Hunter Holmes McGuire, "Stonewall" Jackson's chief medical officer.

Mayor McGuire, had been suffering from a leakage of the heart for several months, and had been under the care of his cousins, Drs. Stuart and Edward McGuire, since the first of the year. He became Mayor last fall, having been elected by the Common Council to succeed Mayor Charles W. Ramsburg, who resigned.

Mayor McGuire was 37 years old and unmarried. He had been assistant cashier of the Farmers and Merchants' National Bank for years. He was one of the charter members of Winchester Lodge of Elks, and was secretary of the Fairfax Club.

Mayor McGuire's paternal grandfather, Dr. Hugh McGuire, was an eminent surgeon, and his maternal grandfather was John Randolph Tucker, member of Congress and dean of the law school of Washington and Lee University.

M. E. MINISTER FINED $100.

He Was Acquitted on Charge of Assaulting His Niece.

Bristol, Va.Tenn. April 9.—The Rev. C. A. Barker, of Benhams, Va., a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, arrested here on the charge of having criminally assaulted his niece, Miss N. K. Lewis, aged 22 years, was acquitted yesterday of the assault charge, but was fined $100 for misconduct. He paid his fine and was released. Barker, who is a man of family, came here Tuesday night in company with his niece, who was en route for her home in Colorado. He was found in Miss Lewis' room at a lodging house.

ASKED FOR $3,000 FUND.

Mayor of Richmond Wants Vice Survey Like That in Other Cities.

Richmond, April 9.—If the $3,000 asked for by Mayor Ainslie to pay the expenses incident to the investigation of the "vice" commission is granted by a Council a complete survey similar to those made in New York and Chicago will be made here.

This survey which will be made by an expert, will cover the whole field, and will give all the information desired in order that intelligent recommendations for the suppression or further regulation of the social evil may be made.

A survey is now being made in Norfolk. It will cost, it is said, about $2,500. The Richmond survey will probably cost less than the Norfolk investigation, but the Mayor thought it best to ask for $3,000 to cover all contingencies.

GOOD FRIDAY AND THE PASSOVER.

Good Friday, the most solemn day in the Christian calendar, and the Passover, the most important of the Hebrew race, fall upon the same day this year, and while the followers of Jesus Christ are anticipating the joyful Easter season, the descendants of Abraham will be celebrating the deliverance of their race from the cruel treatment of the taskmasters of Egypt.

Abot twenty years ago Rev. Dr. Calisch, the well-known rabbi of Richmond, delivered a lecture on the "Wandering Jew" in the Opera House in this city. His views were broad nad conservative concerning the missions of Judaism and Christianity, he regarding the Christian Church as the noble daughter of the ancient faith. The speaker compared the two great systems to the rivers Euphrates and Tigris coursing in parallel lines, refreshing the land and bringing joy and gladness to millions, and finally blending their waters in the Persian Gulf. In the end, Dr. Calisch suggested, Judaism and Christianity would blend.

The Jewish Passover service, especially as observed by the orthodox, is interesting and instructive, and carries much with it of interest to Christians.

The Feast of Passover is the oldest church festival of the Jewish calendar. Its observance dates back nearly 3,300 years.

The main characteristic of its celebration has always been domestic. The Feast of Passover lasts one week. In the homes, the families and invited friends gather on the first evening—in orthodox homes, also on the second evening—to recount in song and story, and observe with appropriate symbolism, the deliverance of Israel. The ceremonial Passover feast at the homes is known as the Seder.

The main symbols of the Seder service are the roasted lamb bone, reminding the celebrants of the lamb that was slaughtered as a sacrifice of the Covenant; the Matzah or unleavened bread that is eaten during the whole week, which recalls the hasty preparation with which the Israelities hurried out of Egypt; and the bitter herbs, suggesting vividly the bitter lives of the ancient Jews in Egypt.

The Feast of Passover is full of significance for the modern Jew. To his unfortunate brethren still pining in slavery in Russia and Roumania, it sings the song of ultimate redemption. To those who dwell under the flag of freedom it brings an appreciation of the higher civic duties and the responsibilities of civic and religious liberty.

Lent, as is well-known, is the forty days' fast preparatory to the celebration of Easter. The name appears in Middle English as Lenten, which goes back to Anglo-Saxon "lencten," meaning spring. Originally the duration of this fast appears to have been only forty hours.

In the second century a dispute arose as to the proper time for celebrating Easter between the Eastern and Western churches. The great mass of Eastern Christians celebrated Easter on the fourteenth day of the first month, or moon, considering it to be equivalent to the Jewish Passover, when Christ was crucified. The Western Christians celebrated it on the Sunday after the fourteenth, holding that it was the commemoration of the resurrection of Jesus. The Council of Nice A. D. 325, decided in favor of the Western usage.

IN PURSUIT OF WAGON.

Latest Clue in McCarrick Case Furnished Police by a Woman.

Philadelphia, April 9—The search for Warren McCarrick,the 7-year-old boy who disappeared from the home of his parents in this city nearly a month ago, led the detectives today to Lewes, Del., in pursuit of the Conestoga wagon, which passed near the McCarrick home on the day of the boys disappearance. The latest clue was furnished by a woman who saw the wagon. The police and the boy's father are convinced that if the wagon is located the boy will be found.

Another search of the Schuylkill river by the police boate "Reyburn," was without result.

WILL ABOLISH COUPONS.

Tobacco Interests Plant to save About $12,000,000 Annually.

New York, April 9.—Important tobacco interests declared that the big tobacco companies intended to abolish the practice of giving away cash and all othe rcoupons with tobacco, thus saving about $12,000,000 annually.

The doing away with the coupons is in line with the legislation at Washington, calling for the abolition of the system of giving coupons with tobacco.

FLEES BURNING HOME.

Attorney S. B. Bragg and His Sister Escape From Structure.

Norfolk, Va., April 9.—"Ridgewood," the beautiful home of Attorney S. B. Bragg, on the Bayshore railroad, near Ocean View, was destroyed by fire Thursday morning. Mr. Bragg and his sister who were asleep at the time, barely had time to escape with their lives. Each saved a suit of clothing and everything else in the house burned.

The house was brick and stone with a Spanish tiled roof. It cost about $8,000, exclusive of furnishings. There was partial insurance.

Motor Service Started.

Winchester, Va. April 9.—The new automobile bus service between Winchester and Strasburg was put into effect yesterday, and the large car, which arrived here about 9:30 o'clock from the Shenandoah county town was filled with passengers. One of the men who made the trip from Strasburg stated that the car was filled all the way down the Valley pike, and the ride over the smooth and even surface of the historic roadway was a real pleasure.

The car runs on a regular schedule, just like a railroad train, and the rates are graduated, according to the distance. It is operated by Mr. Hersell Borden, of Middleton. Several round trips are made during the day. Leaving Winchester, the car started from the corner of Main and Piccadilly streets.

The Carnegie Church Peace Union has offered 100 prizes for essays on "Peace" to be written by young people without regard to denomination.

Sure Indications of Lung Trouble

Among the indications of threatened Lung Trouble are a continued cough, fever and night sweats. A change of climate often helps, but it seems that something more is needed to stop the cough and sweats and arrest the progress of disease. Eckman's Alterative, after many years of use, is known to be most beneficial in bringing about relief, in many cases complete recoveries. Investigate this case:—Schell City, Mo.

"Gentlemen: I had a terrible cough, night sweats and pleurisy in my breast. A man who heard me coughing advised me to take your Alterative. I paid no attention to him then. I got so bad the doctor said I should go to Missouri. I did, and when I got there I steadily grew worse. Then I remembered what had been told me about your medicine. I began taking it, with no faith whatever, but before I had taken three bottles I could eat anything. I slept and night sweats stopped and for over a year I have been well and in better health than I ever was."

(Affidavit) W. P. ROMAN.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

A Neglected Cold Often Affects the Lungs

Many serious cases of Throat or Lung Trouble can be directly traced to a cough or cold which has been neglected. If you notice that a cough persists in clinging to you take warning. If you neglect trying to stop this supposed trivial trouble the throat and lungs later become affected. In many cases Eckman's Alterative has been the means of bringing permanent relief. Investigate this case:—

Saratoga, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: For five or six years I was troubled with cough and expectoration. I also had a high fever. My case was declared Lung Trouble by my physician. I was given Cod Liver Oil, Creosote and other medicines, all without benefit. At Christmas time, 1906, I was not expected to live. Calling Dr. H. H. McCarthy, he advised the use of Eckman's Alterative, which I took with excellent results. I have gained in weight, I go out in all weathers and have had no cough or cold whatever. I give these facts to encourage others to use Eckman's Alterative."

(Affidavit) JAS. W. KANALY.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

A Cure For Sour Stomach.

Mrs. Wm. M. Thompson, of Battle Creek, Mich., writes, "I have been troubled with indigestion, sour stomach and bad breath. After taking two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets I am well. These tablets are splendid—none better." For sale by all dealers.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Mrs. "General" Flora Drummond, one of the most militant of the suffragettes, was fined $10 in London yesterday for rioting in Trafalgar Square last Saturday during the anti-home rule demonstration. Mrs. Drummond was considerably more subdued than she was on Monday, when she caused such a commotion in the court room that she had to be forcibly removed to her cell. The imposition of the fine aroused Mrs. Drummond from her apparent submissiveness. "How dare you fine me for attempting to secure the freedom of women?" she shouted at the judge. When the policemen tried to overpower her she snatched a whistle from the belt of one of the officers and hurled at the magistrate.

Mrs. Clarke Sanborn, of Buffalo, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by leaping into the Niagara River from Second Sister Island. A guard who had talked with the woman previously, saw her leap into the water and attempted to rescue her. He managed to reach the body just at the brink of the falls but the woman was dead. Mrs. Sanborn had been in ill health for some time.

James C. McNally, of Pittsburgh, with his family, sailed for Europe a couple of weeks ago in order to be on hand to assume his prospective duties as United States Consul at Nuremberg, Bavria. His nomination had been sent to the Senate by the President at the request of the State Department. He had been told that the influence of his friends would be sufficient to obtain confirmation, despite sensational and strongly substantiated charges against him. Yesterday by a vote of 26 to 24, the United States Senate refused to confirm Mr. McNally's nomnation, after a three-day fight in executive session.

For the first time on record aeroplane was used for life-saving duty at sea yesterday, when Aviator Clifford. Wasster made a flight to a oil tank steamer, which had gone aground in the harbor at Salem, Mass. The water was too rough to allow life boats to approach so Wasster consented to fly to the wreck to ascertain if the men were in immediate danger of death. After speaking to the captain Wasster returned to shore and reported the vessel's position. Tugs were sent out. The steamer later was able to refloat herself and proceed to Norfolk.

An official communication says that Musulman Albanians on Tuesday entered Koritsa, in the vilayet of Monastir, and with the aid of the gendarmerie, who had previously disarmed the inhabitants, began a massacre of the Christians. A Vienna dispatch of April 3, said it was reported from Avolona that Greek irregular forces had fiercely attacked Koritsa, but were repulsed by the Albanians.

Compelled by a disabled motor to land in the territory of hostile Moors, Capt Herce, a French military aviator, and a lieutenant, were attacked and chopped to pieces yesterday by the natives. They were upon a reconnoitering tour near Zenmour.

Many paintings, strikingly original in theme and treatment, are to be seen in the hemicycle of the Corcoran Gallery, of Art, where the twenty-third annual exhibition of the society of Washington Artists is now being given. The exhibition comprises 177 pictures and 19 pieces of sculpture. Miss Catherine C. Critcher, of the Woodley, is the only Washington artist winning a prize. Her portrait of Miss Aline Solomons was awarded the third prize, a bronze medal.

Three Russian boys first assaulted the daughter of a Jewish fisherman in Stavrapol, on the Volga river, then dragged her to a cemetery and crucified her above one of the graves according to a report which reached Berlin. Nails were driven into the hands and feet of the girl and also through her eyes before she was suspended on the cross. The boys were arrested a short time later, but friends released them from jail and they escaped, it is said.

Seven workmen were killed outright, one was fatally injured, and several were hurt when a dynamite explosion occurred on the celilo Canal project, on the Columbia River, near The Dalles, Oreg., yesterday. A stick of dynamite which had missed fire at a previous blasting, was struck by the shovel and the explosion followed. One man was blown from his seat in the machinery on the shovel and was ground to pieces.

Charged with killing B. M. Jones, his former business partner, David L. Amerigi, has been arrested at St. Louis.

MOUSE BRINGS VOICE BACK

Frightens Long-Speechless Woman Into Restored Vocalism.

Gloucester, Mass., April 9.—Frightened at the sight of a mouse, Miss Susie M. Lowe, 45 years old, recovered her voice Tuesday after having been unable even to whisper for two years.

Tuesday morning, while reading a newspaper, a mouse ran across the floor and Miss Lowe sprang to a chair for safety, screaming. More surprised at the sound of her voice than at the mouse, she attempted to articulate and found that the power of speech had returned.

Miss Lowe lost her voice after an attack of tonsilitis and physicians who were unable to account for her condition at that time are even more puzzled to explain the exact manner in which she recovered.

PROBING PHAGAN MURDER.

Report of Detective Burns Causes Much Speculation.

Atlanta, Ga., April 9.—The much-heralded conference between Detective William J. Burns and Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey took place in the latter's office yesterday. Burns called on the solicitor general in order that he might have an opportunity to examine the evidence in the case. The solicitor was asked if Mr. Burns had convinced him of the innocence of Leo M. Frank.

"He didn't even try," spiritedly answered Mr. Dorsey.

Burns, after the conference, and his examination of the evidence, the notes, the clothing worn by the slain girl, etc., asserted that he was more firmly convinced than ever that the crime was committed by an abnormal. This probably means that Burns in his report will declare Frank innocent of the crime for which he has been condemned and will brand the negro, Jim Conley, as the real murderer. Burns already is on record as having repeatedly said that Frank is not abnormal.

During the last twenty-four hours, six physicians, among them specialist on nervous diseases have made thorough physical examinations of Frank. While the physicians refuse to discuss the visit to Frank's cell, it is said they made the examination for Burns.

On leaving the conference with Dorsey, Burns said: "We called on the solicitor simply to see the various exhibits in the case. Mr. Dorsey received us courtesly and readily showed us the physical evidence and gave us the information we came to get.

"We are one step nearer the end," he continued, "and everything is working to to establish my theory, I am absolutely confident of success."

BIG ROCKS RISE IN ATLANTIC.

That is Report Captain of Steamer Bjoin Makes Upon His Arrival.

Newport News, Va., April 9.—Captain E. Hendricksen, of the Norwegian steamer Bjoin, which arrived in Hampton Roads Tuesday, has told the officer in charge of the branch hydrographic office a remarkable story of the rise of two large rocks during the past month in Atlantic ocean off the Florida coast. The rocks are reported five miles south of the Hillsboro inlet, and are said to rise between three and four feet out of the water, and between fifteen and twenty feet apart.

The coast in this vicinity is sandy and there is not a rock charted within one hundred miles of the place where Captain Hendricksen reported seeing the two. The rocks are thought to have been caused by the sinking of a vessel loaded with concrete. The action of the water is thought to have washed away the wreck of the vessel leaving the solidified mass of cement.

FAVOR OF PEACE MONUMENT.

Would Commemorate End of Civil War at Appomattox.

Washington, April 9.—A peace monument for the blue and the gray, to stand on the field of Appomattox in commemoration of the end of the struggle between the North and the South, was advocated by Maj. George B. Davis, U. S. A., retired, at the celebration last night in Grand Army Hall, by Kit Carson Post, No. 2, Department of the Potomac, G. A. R., of the 49th anniversary of the surrender of Appomattox Courthouse.

"There two of the greatest armies the world has ever known laid down their arms," he said, "and there two of the greatest generals of all times united in a pact of peace that lives and will continue to live. It is only fitting that this memorable place should be marked by the peace monument in honor of that event."

UNVEIL STATUE OF VIRGINIAN

Colonel George Armistead Was in Command of Fort McHenry in 1841.

Baltimore, Md., April 9.—Another of Virginia's sons who played a conspicuous part in the history of the country, and who contributed largely to the success of finally establishing American independence, is soon to be honored by the citizens of his adopted State—Maryland. In the city of Baltimore, a bronze statute of Lieutenant Colonel George Armistead, the gallant defender of Fort McHenry against the British in 1814, will be unveiled in September, during the National Star-Spangled Banner Centennial Celebration. The statute will be of heroic size.

POPE'S EASTER MESSAGE.

Urges All to Pray For Universal Peace on Earth.

Rome, April 9.—Pope Pius yesterday issued the following Easter message of peace to the world:

"The message of the chuch to the world at Easter is an eternal one. It is this: Christ has risen. But, though the message is an old one, it has its application always to the newest events; hence, it is a message which always has new force.

"Christ rose to bring peace to the world. It is thus the duty of His followers to strive to bring about peace. I pray and I desire that all should pray that this Easter may bring peace to all the world. In our minds there rises first of all the thought of the regions of the earth which most of all at the present time stand in need of this blessing, the Balkans in the Old World and Mexico in the New World. May Easter bring them peace.

"May all those who control the destinies of the nations work to this end and with this peace may come the inspiration into the minds of all men and especially all rulers that their ideal, which alone is the guaranty of universal peace, should be instaurare omnia in Christ—let all things be founded in Christ."
